

CORPORATE SALUTE 2017

Honoring Florida's Top Public Companies

October 18, 2017

2017 WEL CENSUS

For more than a decade, Women Executive Leadership periodically prepares a census of top public companies headquartered in Florida, as listed by net revenue, according to Florida Trend. Using the most recent Securities and Exchange Commission filings, annual reports and proxy statements, our census evaluates the number of women on boards and in executive positions. Based on those results, we bring leaders together to celebrate and reaffirm the financial and social benefits of gender diversity in corporate leadership.

AGENDA

- Lunch and Networking
- Welcome Address and Opening Remarks
- Trailblazer Award Tribute
- Keynote- Rick Goings, CEO and Chairman of Tupperware Brands Corporation
- Executive Summary of 2017 Census Study
- Breakthrough and Elevate Awards Presentation
- Closing Remarks

SPEAKERS

Featured Speaker:

Rick Goings

CEO and Chairman of Tupperware Brands Corporation

There's a reason Tupperware has landed on Forbes' most admired companies list eight years in a row. Chairman & CEO, Rick Goings, one of the longest serving CEO's of a global public company, has been dedicated to promoting gender equality in business since joining the brand almost 20 years ago and has been urging other companies to do the same. Today, Tupperware has achieved 60% gender parity and 50% female board representation.

Tupperware's commitment to gender equality initiatives includes:

- ◆ United Nations HeForShe IMPACT Champion
- ◆ CEO Statement of support for the UN's Women's Empowerment Principles
- ◆ Tupperware's Gender Audit and action plan to get to 50/50
- ◆ Building the case for Women's confidence and economic empowerment
